Missoma Serpent bangle

WELCOME back Missoma. After a year spent travelling, jewellery designer Marissa Hordern is back in London bringing her keen eye for the prettiest coloured gemstones back to our fingers, necks, ears and wrists. The new Serpent collection sees gilded snakes slithering glamorously across bracelets, rings, earrings and - our favourite - on this Serpent cuff, which comes in 18-carat gold vermeil and features multi-coloured gemstones, including turquoise, pink tourmaline, amethyst, peridot and iolite. Wear yours on the beach in Ibiza. Visit www.missoma.com for more information and stockist information.
